

Conferment Ceremony

The 2007 Conferment ceremony was generously sponsored for the second year by Barclays, and hosted at its Canary Wharf headquarters. The ceremony was presided over by the ACT's President, Stephen East, and Angela Potter, Head of International Trade and Cash Solutions at Barclays, gave a welcoming address. More than 70 successful candidates who had passed MCT, AMCT or one of the Certificate papers in 2006 attended the ceremony and were warmly congratulated on their achievements. The candidate with the highest score in each paper received a prize, kindly provided by supporting companies and banks.
