

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL ACT DINNER

The ACT Annual Dinner took place at the Grosvenor House Hotel, Park Lane, London, on Wednesday 12 November. Baron Alexandre Lamfalussy (pictured), the man who was both Europe's first 'central banker' and then responsible for much of the work on the regulation of European securities markets, was the guest of honour and provided the 1600 members and their guests with his vision for the economic future of Europe. He was followed by the NSPCC's special guest, Ian McCaskill (pictured), of BBC weather fame, who was on hand to announce the winning time for the charity sweepstake on behalf of the NSPCC. The ACT is delighted to say that over £13,500 was raised. ACT President, Philip Gillett made the loyal toast.
