

ACT EXAM RESULTS

DAVID WESTBY OF THE ACT CONGRATULATES THE STUDENTS WHO PASSED THE LATEST ROUND OF AMCT, MCT AND CERT ICM EXAMS. FOR THOSE WHO DID NOT PASS, HE PLEDGES THE ASSOCIATION'S SUPPORT IN THEIR CONTINUED EFFORTS TO MAKE THE GRADE.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all 145 AMCT students, international cash management students and MCT students for completing their examinations, which I know involved very hard work and a major sacrifice of your time.

For those of you who did not pass this year, or perhaps have not yet finished your exams, we at the ACT would like to encourage you to continue your programme of study and we will do all that we can to help you pass.

At any one time, the ACT has around 1,500 students working towards various qualifications. This, in itself, is a major endorsement of the quality of our education programme.

We have made considerable changes over the years to improve the quality of tuition and it has become evident from the survey forms that you fill in, that you all seem to approve. Also, the amount of tuition and revision involved has expanded dramatically over the last few years. Although the manuals we use will always remain essential, the number of ways in which our students can learn are expanding with more tuition, e-learning for Cert ICM and extra revision for AMCT and MCT.

Finance is becoming ever more complex. Furthermore, it changes and develops continually. Only if you have a thorough understanding of the principles of finance can you hope to keep apace of the changes and developments that go on around you in the wider world.
