ACT Modern Slavery Statement

ACT modern slavery and human trafficking statement

Our commitment to the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015

The ACT is committed to the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and the abolition of modern slavery and human trafficking. We do not enter into business with any organisation, in the UK or abroad, that knowingly supports or is found to be involved in slavery, servitude or forced or compulsory labour (together Modern Slavery).

As an equal opportunities employer, we are committed to creating and ensuring a non-discriminatory and respectful working environment for our staff. We want all our staff to feel confident that they can expose wrongdoing without any risk to themselves.

Our recruitment and people management processes are designed to ensure that all prospective employees are legally entitled to work in the UK and to safeguard employees from any abuse or coercion.

Our ethical compliance

Wherever reasonably possible our contracts with third parties ensure that each party at all times takes reasonable steps to prevent Modern Slavery within its business and makes all reasonable endeavours to ensure compliance with the same by its own suppliers.

This statement will be reviewed and updated every year.

Last reviewed July 2026