Website analytics and cookies

This cookie policy contains important information on who we are and how we use cookies on our website. This policy should be read together with our Privacy Policy.

Who we are

This website is operated by The Association of Corporate Treasurers and its wholly-owned subsidiary ACT (Administration) Limited, collectively referred to as the ACT. We are a not-for-profit member organisation based in the United Kingdom. For more information visit the ACT's about page.

Our website

This cookie policy relates to your use of our websites within the treasurers.org domain (www, ACT, wiki, careers and learning). The website study.treasurers.org is hosted by a SaaS service suppliers and may have additional cookie policies in addition to this policy.

Cookies

A cookie is a small text file placed onto your electronic device (e.g. computer or smartphone) when you use our website. We use cookies on our website. These help us provide a login session for you and allow us to gather anonymised visitor statistics such as average return visits and originating location of the visitor population.

We use Cookiebot on our website. Cookiebot is a trademark of Usercentrics A/S, a company registered in Denmark, no. 34624607.

We also use Click Dimensions to measure identifiable visits from email links. These are on a limited number of pages throughout our websites and you can opt out of these when visiting such a page.

For further information on cookies generally, including how to control and manage them, visit the guidance on cookies published by the UK Information Commissioner's Office, www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.

Consent to use cookies and changing settings

By continuing to browse the websites you are giving permission to place cookies or other similar technologies on your device, except where they are essential for us to provide you with a service that you have requested such as your website login and access to areas of our websites that require login.

Withdrawal of consent will require you no longer to visit our website. Your website login can be removed from our systems on request to website@treasurers.org or if you are an ACT member, to membership@treasurers.org.

Consent to Click Dimensions tracking

On certain pages on our website you will receive a further consent request which is separate from the site-wide message (this message will appear at the bottom of your browser and will require an answer before you can access the page further). If you choose not to accept tracking this will disable personally identified tracking for this visit, but you will still be included in anonymous analytics while using the website.

How to turn off all cookies and the consequences of doing so

If you do not want to accept any cookies then you may be able to change your browser settings so that cookies (including those essential to the services requested) are not accepted. If you do this, please be aware that you may lose functionality of our website.
For further information about cookies and how to disable them please go to the guidance on cookies published by the UK Information Commissioner's Office, www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.

How to contact us

Please contact us at dataprotection@treasurers.org if you have any questions about this cookie policy or the information we hold about you.

If you would like to raise any complaint related to our use of your personal information, please complete our Data Protection Complaints Form.

We hope we can resolve any query or concern you may raise about our use of your information.

However, if we haven't been able to do so, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with the ICO, who may be contacted at https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/data-protection-
