

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

YOUR CPD DECLARATION

A CPD Declaration is confirmation that you have carried out your CPD for the year. Making your declaration is very straightforward and should only take a few moments. You do not need to submit your CPD record when making your declaration.

Who needs to declare CPD?

Fellows and Associate members (unless retired) are asked to undertake and record CPD activity. Even if you are no longer working in treasury, on a career break or working part time you should evaluate your needs and record what is right for your professional development.

If you work for an ACT CPD accredited employer you need to confirm that you still work for that employer.

How should CPD be recorded?

You can record your CPD in any format and we're keen for you to adopt an approach that works for you. We have developed a range of tools to help you record your CPD - including an interactive log, which is available at: treasurers.org/cpd/mycpd

How do I declare my CPD?

You can make your declaration online at treasurers.org/declaration or use the postal form below. You do not need to submit your CPD record at this stage. A random sample of members will be asked to submit their CPD record at a later stage.

If you have any questions, please get in touch with us at cpd@treasurers.org or call the team on +44 (0)20 7847 2529.
